

DICEY LANGSTON SPRINGFIELD SOCIETY
$100 Household Membership

Dacey Langston Springfield
 (b. Laurens District, 1766)

Inspired by love of family and country, Dacey Langston twice risked her life to confound Loyalists, once walking miles at night through swamps and creeks to warn her brother of an attack and once throwing herself between her aging father and Tory raiders, refusing to give them the information they sought.

DANIEL MORGAN SOCIETY
$250 Household Membership

Brigadier General Daniel Morgan
 (b. New Jersey, 1736)

Morgan joined the American Army at the start of the Revolutionary War and distinguished himself in the early northern campaigns. His most memorable achievement was as hero of the Battle of Cowpens, in which he led a group of untrained militia and Continentals to victory over a superior British force.

VARDRY MCBEE SOCIETY
$500 Household Membership

Vardry McBee

(b. near present-day Gaffney, 1775)

Rightly called “the father of Greenville,” Vardry McBee was a determined and hard-working entrepreneur whose efforts in the mid-1800s turned Greenville into a center of commerce and culture.

RICHARD PEARIS SOCIETY

$1,000 Household or Corporate Membership

Richard Pearis
 (b. Ireland, 1725)

A daring frontiersman and Indian trader, Richard Pearis was one of the first European settlers to successfully acquire land, including present day Paris Mountain, in what was to become Greenville.

ANDREW PICKENS SOCIETY

$5,000 Household or Corporate Membership

Brigadier General Andrew Pickens
 (b. Pennsylvania, 1739)

In 1752 Pickens moved to South Carolina and took part in frontier warfare against the Cherokee. He served with distinction in the Revolutionary War and rose to the rank of general. Following his military career, he served as U.S. Congressman from SC and as Commissioner for Native American Relations in the South.

OLD NINETY SIX SOCIETY

$10,00 Household or Corporate Membership

Old Ninety Six Society

The early settlement of Ninety Six has been the site of much Upcountry history: an Indian trading center, Revolutionary War battles, and one of the earliest circuit courts in the Backcountry.
